

The Kingdom of Fungi Workshop

Wednesday 11th September 2019

26-40 Delancey St, Cleveland QLD 4163

Presented by Dr Frances Guard

Workshop Program
8.30am – 12.00pm
Introduction	A broad-brush overview including attitudes to fungi, understanding of the Kingdom and its history.
Roles of Fungi in Nature:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Saprobies – wood rot etc 2. Mutualists – mycorrhizas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - endophytes - lichens 3. Parasites
Fungal flexibility	Changing roles
Physiology and Nutritional cycles
Roles in man-made environment:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Positive • Negative
Identifying Fungal Groups	Morphogroups Basidiomycetes, Ascomycetes, Myxomycetes
QUESTIONS
MORNING TEA BREAK
PARASITIC FUNGI
Parasites vs Pathogens	Rusts – Myrtle rust Smuts Water Moulds – Phytophthora Macro & Micro fungi – Phellinus -Ganodermas
DISCUSSION.
END of program

Program Contact:

Bec Dalton

07 3821 1488

accounts@qaa.net.au